

THE GLOBE THEATRE
February 2014
Opening Thursday 20th February

Ticket prices: $22 adult, $18 concession and groups, $10 high school students,
$15 Globe members

Journey's End is a play that will make you laugh, make you cry and make you angry at the pity of it all. It is one you are guaranteed to remember. Reviews of recent London productions described it as being 'profoundly moving' and its final moments as 'devastating'.

While the Globe does not have the finances to compete with the wizardry of West End productions, we are sure that the energy and abilities of our highly talented team will affect you similarly.
